Rhonda Larson, a brilliant performer and extraordinary flutist, filled our hall to capacity at her concert here in September, 2008.

The audience was spellbound! Rhonda's solo flute (with her "virtual band") is an amazing and exciting listening experience for all ages.

Some of the feedback we received: "I had no idea...", "Please bring her back...", "She is so beautiful, so talented, versatile, creative...", "Wow..." "What a magical variety of sounds!..."

Not only is Rhonda beautiful to look at, she is a truly lovely person who captivates and engages her audience right from the start. Add to this her incredible musical talent, and you'll be totally absorbed and thrilled with her performance.

Rhonda will wow you!

Sincerely,

Charlotte Bostwick
